After only one year of performing together, ViVA is launching their new official website: www.ViVAOperaTrio.com. The website features the trio's performance highlights captured in both video and photo. A video of CityTV's live footage of ViVA's performance at Casa Loma, Toronto, is among the featured videos.

When you first open ViVA's new website, you will notice their stunning video banner. The new website also tells the story of how the group formed, their past successes, and future projects, in the ViVA biography. Visitors of www.ViVAOperaTrio.com can listen to the music of ViVA on their Soundcloud tracks, or on one of their many videos.

Though they are a new group, ViVA's social media following is growing rapidly: with more than 15,200 followers on Twitter, 41,550 plus views on Youtube, and over 5,600 Facebook fans. ViVA is a group to watch! On their new website, they have an exclusive area for eNewsletter subscribers only. Subscribe to ViVA's eNewsletter and gain access to their exclusive content.
